

RENÉ RENÉ

“Lo Mucho Que Te Quiero” • “Angelito”

This talented singer-songwriter-composer was born René Víctor Ornelas in Laredo, Texas where he started his musical career, at age 14, as a vocalist and trumpet player for his father's popular band – the Mike Ornelas Orchestra.

During his upbringing, René René was exposed to Christian values and the influence of the Lord was embedded in his heart for the day that the Lord would call him to His service.

In recent years, René René heard the Lord's voice call out to him and he has answered the call. Since then, he has signed a lifetime contract with the biggest promoter of life and salvation, our Lord Jesus Christ. Now he has re-written all his greatest hit songs, plus many new Christian inspirations, to reflect his love and commitment to God.

As a secular artist, René became the first Hispanic artist to record an international bilingual song when he recorded two worldwide million sellers, “ANGELITO” and “LO MUCHO QUE TE QUIERO.”

As one of the first Hispanics to appear on DICK CLARK's “AMERICAN BANDSTAND,” the University of Texas in San Antonio graduate was chosen to go on Dick Clark's “Caravan of Stars” tour with Diana Ross and the Supremes • The Beach Boys • Fats Domino • Three Dog Night • Jan and Dean, plus many others.

Along the way the 5-foot-10-inch tall, green-eyed artist earned two GOLD RECORDS and a GOLDEN GLOBE AWARD. Besides being a dynamic headline entertainer, René is considered a very prolific songwriter and his compositions have been recorded by stars such as:

Vikki Carr	Trini López	José Feliciano	Herb Alpert & Tijuana Brass
Peter Nero	Lawrence Welk	Pedro Fernández	Trio Los Panchos
Pedro Vargas	Ray Anthony	Marco Antonio Muñoz	Little Joe y La Familia
Laura Canales	Carlos Guzman	Grupo Mazz	plus many others.

René's fame has taken him on tour in Mexico, Canada, Germany, France, Italy, Japan, Okinawa, Korea, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Panama, Venezuela and virtually the entire United States, where he continues to perform to enthusiastic sell-out crowds.

In view of his many musical accomplishments and achievements, René has received Mexico's coveted ESTRELLA DE PLATA, a DISCO DE ORO and a GLOBO DE ORO, plus numerous other recognitions. In addition, René has been inducted into the Tejano Music Hall of Fame, the Hispanic American Entertainment Hall of Fame and the Tejano Roots Hall of Fame.

As a result, the name RENÉ RENÉ has become a household word in the Latin Hemisphere. However, his fame is not limited to the Hispanic market since he was one of the first Latinos to break into the American market. Therefore, the continued airplay on American oldies radio stations and his continued participation in various “Oldies but Goodies” tours has maintained his international popularity. Now, René René has become a Christian music artist.

“I have realized that God is the Answer. I have sung for the world all my life, but now I have chosen to sing to my Master and Savior Jesus Christ. I have accepted Jesus Christ as my personal redeemer and He has sent me the Holy Spirit. The day that I made the decision to follow Jesus Christ truly was the beginning of the rest of my life.”

A multitude of Christians, who have heard RENÉ RENÉ are testimony that the still youthful and energetic CHRISTIAN ARTIST is now BETTER THAN EVER !
